

8th Annual Meeting of Exercise is Medicine in Europe

Conference theme: "healthy active ageing"

Venue: Amsterdam Public Library (OBA)

The Annual Meeting is for physicians, health care professionals, sports scientists, public health and health technology specialists. European UEMS accreditation is applied.

Day 1

Friday September 20, 2019

08.30-09.30 registration/coffee

09.30-11.00 block 1- Introduction

09.30-09.45	Introduction to the conference/welcome	Willem van Mechelen; VU University Amsterdam (NL)
09.45-10.00	EIEIM - A growing Initiative	Jürgen Steinacker; Ulm University (DE)
10.00-10.30	Role of big data	Philip Treleaven; University College London (UK)
10.30-11.00	Role of Modern Technology	Heleen Riper; VU University Amsterdam (NL)

11.00-11.30 coffee Industry Exhibition/Networking/Poster tour

11.30-13.00 block 2 - Settings

11.30-12.00	EIM in primary care – Sweden leads by example	Mats Borjesson; University of Gothenburg (SE)
12.00-12.30	On a blue print for EIM in Dutch Hospital Care	Rienk Dekker; University of Groningen (NL)
12.30-13.00	To sit or not to sit? Implications for clinical care	Ulf Ekelund; Norwegian School of Sport Sciences, Oslo (NO)

13.00-14.00 lunch Industry Exhibition/Networking/Poster tour

14.00-15.30 block 3 – Disease specific EIM

14.00-14.30	EIM for cancer patients	Kathryn Schmitz; Penn State University (USA)
14.30-15.00	EIM as pre-hab in pre-operative care	Joost Klaase; University of Groningen (NL)
15.00-15.30	EIM and neuro-degenerative disease	Claus Reinsberger; University Paderborn (DE)

15.30-16.00 coffee Industry Exhibition/Networking/Poster tour

16.00-17.30 block 4 – EIM for the young

16.00-16.30	Physical activity and cognition; what do we know in kids?	Mai Chin A Paw, VU University Medical Center in Amsterdam (NL)
16.30-17.00	Physical activity interventions for children; do they really work?	Esther van Sluijs, MRC Epidemiology Unit, Cambridge (UK)
17.00-17.30	EIM for the clinical paediatric population.	Ugo Giordani, Bambino Gesù Children's Hospital, Rome, (IT)

18.00 reception hosted by the City of Amsterdam

Day 2

Saturday September 21, 2019

09.00-10.30 block 5 – EIM for persons with a disability

09.00-09.30	Implementing EIM in community dwelling persons with a disability	Kathleen Martin-Ginis; University of British Columbia (CA)
09.30-10.00	Exercise promotion programs for people with disabilities; what is the role of technology?	James Rimmer, University of Alabama (USA)
10.00-10.30	Exercise for manual wheelchair users	Sonja de Groot, Amsterdam Rehabilitation Research Center/Reade (NL)

10.30-11.00 coffee Industry Exhibition/Networking/Poster tour

11.00-12.30 block 6 - Future developments

11.00-11.30	Marketing EIM	Tom de Bruijne, SUE Amsterdam & Behavioural Design Academy (NL)
11.30-12.00	On the ethics of EIM	Menno de Bree, University of Groningen (NL)
12.00-13.00	Closure	Hans Zwerver University of Groningen (NL) & Jürgen Steinacker Ulm University

Congress Committee:

University Medical Center Groningen (UMCG):

J. Hans Zwerver, j.zwerver@umcg.nl

Rienk Dekker

Lucas van der Woude

Amsterdam Public Health research institute of the Amsterdam University Medical Centers (VUMC):

Willem van Mechelen, w.vanmechelen@vumc.nl

Hidde van der Ploeg

Pieter Coenen

Ulm University, Sports and Rehabilitation Medicine

J. M. Steinacker, Juergen.steinacker@uniklinik-ulm.de

Organizing Agency:

CPO Hanser, Anja Schneider Tel. +49-40-670 882-15, EIEIM2019@cpo-hanser.de